

Eltham Mudbrick Tour 2012

You're invited! Sunday 21st October, 10am – 4pm

The tour features a selection of homes and buildings spanning half a century of the Eltham mudbrick architectural movement. From an early "Alistair Knox" to a contemporary public space.

NOTE: There is limited parking available on the tour, so a free shuttle service will be provided along the tour circuit leaving every 12 minutes. - Walking is also encouraged.

Program

- 10am – 4pm: View five North Eltham homes
- 10am – noon: Eltham High music program at Eltham Library
- 12.30pm: 'Red Chair' talk by Library architect, Greg Burgess OAM
Followed by Q&A and Refreshments.
- 1pm – 4pm: Library Tours by Library project director, John Sharp

Tickets Sales

Online: www.trybooking.com *(search for mudbrick)

*Present eTickets at Edenale Farm or Eltham Library

On day: Practically Green Festival @ Edendale Farm or Eltham Community Market @Eltham Library

Cash only: Adults $18, Concession $12, 18yrs & under FREE (accompanied)

Enquiries: msg.ehs@gmail.com

Bring Driver's License or Photo ID to register and collect your guide book and map.

Tour presented by the Eltham High School Music Support Group

Eltham High School
Music Program.

